

ASSOCIATION'S EVENT RULES

Adapted from the rules of Oulun Luonnontieteilijät ry's excu rules with permission from the board. Amendment made by Atlas ry's statutory meeting on 14.11.2017, changing excursion rules to event rules, valid for all association events without separate notice. 27.3.2024 updated to correspond with Atlas ry's instructions regarding problem situations.

1 § Validity of Event Rules

These event rules apply to all Atlas ry's events and to the individuals participating in them.

2 § Eligible Participants for Atlas' Events

All members of Atlas ry are privileged to participate in events organized by Atlas ry, except for individuals under event bans. In addition, by decision of the Atlas ry board, other individuals or organizations may be invited.

3 § Behavior at Events

Each participant in the organization's events is responsible for their own behavior. Participants must remember that they represent both the University of Oulu, the Department of Geography, Atlas ry, and, humanity.

4 § Atlas' Liability for Accidents and Other Damages

Atlas ry is not liable for any damages to individuals or their private property occurring at events. Each participant is responsible for themselves and their property.

5 § Event Penalties

An individual who, while attending an event, causes destruction or mess, behaves violently, or otherwise causes undue disturbance to fellow participants or bystanders, may be subject to event penalties. Event penalties include event compensation, event bans, and event admonishments. All penalties are decided by the Atlas ry board. When imposing a penalty, the individual concerned must be given the opportunity to be heard. All penalties must be promptly communicated in writing to the penalized individual. In addition, equality executives may issue event warnings. However, these are event-specific, unlike event penalties.

5.1 § Event Compensation

A person who has registered for an event but does not attend without canceling their participation according to the event rules will not receive a refund of the participation fee. If the person has not paid the participation fee, they may be placed under an event ban. If a participant, through inappropriate or careless behavior, causes the event organizer additional costs or undue extra effort, they are obliged to cover the costs incurred by their behavior.

5.2 § Event Admonishment

An event admonishment is valid for one calendar year from the date of issue unless otherwise decided by the Atlas ry board. Two overlapping event admonishments result in an event ban.

5.3 § Event Ban

An event ban is temporary, but may not exceed one hundred (100) years. The ban may apply comprehensively to all Atlas ry events, or alternatively to a specific defined event. In both cases, the event ban is decided by the Atlas ry board.

6 § Other Matters

Matters not specifically addressed in these rules are decided by the Atlas ry board.
